

Mr. Pål Wien Espen

Director General of the Norwegian Communications Authority (Nkom)

Appointed by the Norwegian Government, Pål Wien Espen is the Director General of the Norwegian Communications Authority, as of June 23, 2020.

Prior to taking up his position, Mr. Wien Espen has worked in a security company, the Norwegian Refugee Council, two major business law firms in Oslo, served as deputy judge and held the position as Group General Counsel and Executive Vice President of Telenor Group between 2000-2016.

Pål Wien Espen holds a Master of Laws from University of Oslo, Norway.