

Mr. Jacob Schaumburg-Müller

Deputy Director General of the Danish Competition and Consumer Authority

Jacob Schaumburg-Müller is Deputy Director General at the Danish Competition and Consumer Authority since 2016.

He will serve as alternate for Denmark at BEREC (Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communication) from 2026.

Prior to taking up his position Mr. Schaumburg-Müller served as Head of Division at the Danish Competition and Consumer Authority. He is also member of the Danish Rail Regulatory Body.

Mr. Schaumburg-Müller worked at Microsoft 2007-2010. Prior to that he performed various functions as a civil servant in Danish central government. He holds a Master of Economics from Copenhagen University.