

Akis Markatos, Vice Chair

Akis Markatos is the Vice Chair for Electronic Communications of Hellenic Telecommunications & Post Commission (EETT).

He was Executive Director of 5G Ventures S.A., and General Partner of the Phaistos Investment fund (2021-24). He was Executive Director of Public Properties Company S.A. (2019-21), the General Director at National Cadastre & Mapping Agency S.A. (2013-19), advisor to the CEO at Forthnet Group (2011-12), Investments Director at VC fund of Attica Ventures (2004-11), and Managing Director of Eurocom Expertise S.A. (1996-2004). He has also served as head of the research programs at Telecommunications Department of the University of Athens (1990-96) and Director of the Wolfson Unit at University College London (1986-1990) working on technology transfer from the university to industry in the optical fiber communications sector. He has served as a consultant to the European Commission on issues of telecom markets deregulation, and Elected Member of the Board of Directors in ECTA (European Competitive Telecommunications Association, 2012-14). He was a Member of the Innovation Committee of Hellenic Corporation of Assets and Participations (Growthfund, 2020-22) and Vice-President of the Invention Evaluation Committee of Hellenic Industrial Property Organisation (OBI).

He has more than 40 publications on telecom issues and particular on telecommunications techno-economics & investments.

He is a graduate of the Physics Department of Athens University and holds a M.Sc. in Modern and Applied Optics from University of Reading.