Applications are invited for the establishment of a Reserve List of Seconded National Experts

The BEREC Office

The BEREC Office was set up to provide administrative and professional support to BEREC, the Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communications. The BEREC Office is located in Riga, Latvia.

BEREC is composed of a Board of Regulators consisting of the heads of the 28 national regulatory authorities (NRAs). BEREC advises the European Commission and the NRAs and assists the European Parliament and Council on issues related to the application of the EU regulatory framework for electronic communications. BEREC in particular helps to ensure fair competition and consistency of regulation in the internal market for electronic communications by providing expert advice on market definitions, analysis and remedies, definition of transnational markets, cross-border disputes and numbering issues.

The BEREC Office is an EU Body managed by an Administrative Manager under the supervision of a Management Committee composed of the same heads of the 28 NRAs and a European Commission representative.

The BEREC Office is responsible, in particular, for collecting information from NRAs and exchanging and communicating information in relation to the role and tasks of BEREC; disseminating regulatory best practice among NRAs; assisting the Chair of the BEREC Board of Regulators in the preparation of his/her work; and setting up and providing support to expert working groups.

The Staff Regulations of Officials of European Communities, the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities and the rules adopted jointly by the European Union institutions for the purpose of applying these Staff Regulations and Conditions of employment apply to the staff of the Office.

For further information, please consult the BEREC website: www.berec.europa.eu.

The post

The Seconded National Experts (SNEs) will work in the Programme Management Unit of the Office of the Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communications (BEREC Office). They will report to the Head of Programme Management or to the person appointed by the Head of Programme Management. Their responsibilities will include in particular:

- Providing professional support related to his expertise as well as financial and administrative support to BEREC Expert Working Groups (EWGs), including the Article 7/7a EWGs. Under these roles he/she may have to participate in European meetings and undertake the appropriate roles for supporting the EWGs. This role may also involve extensive travelling within Europe;

- Assisting the Head of Programme Management by providing advice/opinions and inputs to various reports and deliverables;

- Helping to draw up BEREC’s and the BEREC Office’s annual work programmes;

- Drafting replies to requests for opinions/advice;

- Providing support to monitoring and benchmarking activities (data collection, compilation of answers to questionnaires, report writing, etc.);

- Preparing the BEREC Annual Report or other regular reports;

- Supporting the procurement procedures and the public consultations related to the work activities of the Programme Management Unit and undertaking appropriate roles for their successful implementation;

- Supporting the organisation of various BEREC events (i.e. meetings, workshops, trainings, etc.) and undertaking the necessary roles for the successful implementation of these events;

- Operating the various BEREC IT platforms / databases and undertaking roles for the set-up of such IT systems / applications;

- Interacting with BEREC and BEREC Office members, stakeholders and citizens in a positive and proactive way by fostering a strong sense of team spirit;

- Ensuring good communication with external stakeholders by ensuring a positive image of the BEREC Office;

- Performing tasks related to finance and procurement in their area of expertise.
The SNEs in the Programme Management Unit may be assigned other duties appropriate to the grade.

Eligibility criteria

Candidates will be considered for the selection phase on the basis of the following formal criteria, which must be fulfilled by the deadline for applications:

Employment before and during secondment: SNE candidates must be working for a national, regional or local public administration or a public intergovernmental organisation (IGO). The secondment of an SNE by an employer other than a national, regional or local public administration or an IGO may be authorised only on a case-by-case basis, once it has been ascertained that the SNE’s employer is part of the public sector or is an independent university or research organisation that does not seek to make profits for redistribution.

Candidates must have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment and shall remain in the service of that employer throughout the period of secondment.

Nationality: Be a citizen of a Member State of the European Union or of an EFTA Member State;

Be entitled to full rights as a citizen;

Military service: Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws of their home country concerning military service;

University degree or diploma: Have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years, attested by a diploma;

Professional experience: Have at least three years of professional experience in the domain of administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities;

Languages: Thorough knowledge of one of the official European Union languages and a satisfactory knowledge of a second of these languages to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties;

Support of the current employer: The current employer must support the candidate and commit to pay his/her salary during the secondment period.

1 Public administration means all State administrative services at central, federal and regional level, comprising ministries, government and parliamentary services, the courts, central banks and the administrative services of local authorities, as well as the decentralised administrative services of the State and of such authorities, such as national regulatory authorities (NRAs).

2 Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a certificate issued by the competent authority attesting the absence of any criminal record.
Selection criteria

The SNEs in the Programme Management Unit will be selected on the basis of the following criteria:

- Practical experience in the regulation of electronic communications within the competence of BEREC in engineering, economic, legal or other advisory functions;
- Sound knowledge of the European Framework for the regulation of electronic communications;
- Experience in project and/or risk management;
- Ability to represent the BEREC Office in European/international meetings and to undertake the appropriate roles for supporting the interests of BEREC;
- Ability to work in an international, multicultural and multilingual environment;
- Good analytical, problem-solving and organisational skills as well as motivation and interpersonal skills;
- Ability to work under pressure and to meet tight deadlines producing high quality results;
- Ability to fit well into the team of the Program Management Unit at the appropriate level;
- Proven capacity of team-player spirit and conflicts avoidance that will enable him/her to contribute in a coordinated effort with other members of the group striving for a common goal;
- Through knowledge of English as a working language;³
- Ability to use electronic office tools (word processing, spreadsheets, presentation software, email, internet, project management tools, etc.).

Assets

It is desirable for the selected candidate to have the following:

- Knowledge of the market analysis process of the electronic communications markets as well as of the Art.7/7a cases as they are defined by the Framework Directive;
- Experience in data collection and development of benchmarking reports;
- The appropriate certification of a recognised project or risk management methodologies (e.g. PM2, PRINCE2, ITIL, MoR, etc.);
- Practical knowledge of the financial rules of the EU and experience in their application;

- A university degree in the field of economics, law, ICT-related engineering or similar (e.g. physics, mathematics, etc.) of at least 3 years full-time duration, conferring entitlement to undertake postgraduate studies (e.g. MSc, PhD, etc.);³

³ English is the working language of the BEREC Office.
Independence and declaration of interests

The SNE in the Programme Management Unit shall, during the period of secondment, carry out his/her duties under the management of the BEREC Office, its Administrative Manager and the responsible Head of Unit. He or she shall carry out the duties and conduct him/herself solely with the interest of the BEREC Office in mind.

For these purposes the selected candidate must sign a declaration of honour before the secondment starts and the employer must submit a corresponding declaration.

Selection and appointment

Applications shall be forwarded to the BEREC Office by the Permanent Representations, the NRAs, the EFTA Secretariat and the administrations of the IGOs.

The reserve list for SNEs in the Programme Management Unit will be established in accordance with a decision of the Vice Chair of the Management Committee after assessment of his/her merits and suitability for the post, based on the criteria set out above.

The Selection Committee set up for this reserve list shall evaluate applications and select those candidates who meet the eligibility criteria and best match the selection criteria required as specified in the call for interest.

The Selection Committee shall invite the pre-selected applicants to an interview, the content of which shall be defined in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised.

Following the result of the interview, a shortlist of the successful candidates will be drawn up by the Selection Committee.

Equal opportunities

The BEREC Office applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in respect of its recruitments.

Conditions of secondment

This notice concerns Seconded National Expert (SNE) positions. The secondment is not an employment, nor does it lead to an employment at the BEREC Office. The SNE shall remain in the service of his/her employer throughout the period of secondment. The SNE’s employer shall thus undertake to continue to pay his/her salary, to maintain his/her administrative status (permanent official or contract staff member) throughout the period of secondment. The SNE’s employer shall also continue to be responsible for all his/her social rights, particularly social security and pension.

The SNE is entitled to subsistence allowances under the conditions of secondment, which can be found in the Decision of the Management Committee of the BEREC Office regarding the secondment to the BEREC Office of national experts and national experts in professional training.
Before applying, each candidate should ensure that his/her employer will support the candidacy and pay his/her salary during the period of secondment. The final recruitment will be confirmed by an exchange of letters between the BEREC Office and the employer in the Member State concerned.

The selected applicant will be offered the position on the basis of a list established by the Selection Committee. This notice is the basis for the establishment of the Selection Committee’s proposal.

The initial period of secondment may not be less than six months or more than three years. It may be renewed once or more, up to a total period not exceeding three years.

The place of secondment will be Riga, where the BEREC Office is located.

The secondment for a selected applicant will start when a position is available.

Application procedure

For applications to be valid, candidates must submit:

a) The attached application form;

b) A curriculum vitae using the Europass CV format (please indicate the legal length of the diplomas obtained)\(^4\);

c) A covering letter summarising the reasons for applying; and

d) Written confirmation by the SNE’s employer regarding their support of the candidacy and their commitment to continue paying the SNEs salary and to maintain his/her administrative status throughout the period of secondment.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to complete and forward all required application documents in time.

Applications will be rejected if the dossier is incomplete.

Supporting documents (e.g. certified copies of degrees/diplomas, references, proof of experience etc.) should not be sent at this point but must be submitted at a later stage of the procedure, if requested.

In order to facilitate the selection process, all communications to candidates concerning this vacancy will be in English.

Applications, preferably in English, should be sent to the respective Permanent Representation of the Member State, the NRA, the EFTA Secretariat or the administration of the IGO, clearly indicating the vacancy reference number: BEREC/2016/01.

Candidates are asked to report any potential change of address in writing without delay to the above contacts.
