Partner Directorate General	DG CONNECT - Directorate General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology
Duration of the Traineeship	6 months, renewable once for up to additional 6 months
Indicative start date of Traineeship	October/November 2021
Deadline for application	14/06/2021 at 12:00 (midday), Riga time

I. The BEREC Office

The BEREC Office has been set up as a body of the European Union (EU) to:

- provide professional and administrative support services to the Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communications (BEREC), in particular in fulfilling its regulatory tasks;
- collect information from national regulatory authorities (NRAs) and to exchange and transmit information in relation to the regulatory tasks assigned to BEREC;
- produce, on the basis of the information received from NRAs in relation to the regulatory tasks assigned to BEREC, regular draft reports on specific aspects of developments in the European electronic communications market, such as roaming and benchmarking reports, to be submitted to BEREC;
- disseminate regulatory best practices among NRAs;
- establish and maintain registries and databases for the needs of BEREC;
- establish and manage information and communications systems and other IT tools for BEREC and the NRAs and others.

For further information please consult the BEREC website: www.berec.europa.eu and Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1971 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 December 2018 establishing the Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communications \(BEREC\) and the Agency for Support for BEREC \(BEREC Office\), amending Regulation \(EU\) 2015/2120 and repealing Regulation \(EC\) No 1211/2009 \(Text with EEA relevance\).

II. The traineeship

The aim of this traineeship programme is to attract highly qualified applicants who are competent and strongly motivated.

The traineeship will offer the possibility to university graduates with background in a relevant field to gain experience in the work of the EU in general and in the work of the BEREC Office in particular.

The selected trainee will be assigned to the Programme Management Unit, to the Working Group Organisational Support team.

Duties include:

- Providing support to the BEREC working group meetings, external or internal workshops and other events organised by Programme Management Unit, incl. by booking the AVC or venue facilities, circulating the meeting documents, monitoring the registration of participants, and undertaking follow-up actions after the events;
- Providing support to the organisation of training courses for BEREC experts;
- Providing support during public consultations and summarising the contributions received from BEREC stakeholders;
- Support in the reorganisation of the information of the Programme Management Unit on the internal shared drive and on the Agency's website;
- Support in maintaining and updating files and/or databases within the scope of responsibilities of the Programme Management Unit;
- Maintaining and updating mailing and contact lists of BEREC Working Groups;
- Providing support in interaction with stakeholders (internal and external) by helping preparing replies to queries for information;
- Organise internal meetings, workshops, and seminars;
- In the interest of the service, the trainee may be assigned other duties within the scope of activities performed within the Unit as appropriate.

The tasks and duties of the trainee might be further tailored after the start of the traineeship. The trainee may be required to assist in other areas of activity, depending on the needs of the service and his/her profile and experience.

The selected trainee will have a traineeship adviser, who will be in charge of the trainee for the entire period of the traineeship.

III. Eligibility criteria

To be admitted to the Traineeship Programme, candidates must:

- a) be 18 years of age or older;
- b) be nationals of a Member State of the European Union;
- c) have by the beginning of the traineeship successfully completed at least three years of higher education course (university studies) or equivalent education in a field of interest to the BEREC Office attested by a diploma or relevant official certificate¹;
- d) have language skills at level C1 for the first language (thorough knowledge) and at level B2 for the second language (satisfactory knowledge), these level being defined by the Common European Framework of Reference.

Failure to comply with one or more of the eligibility criteria will result in disqualification of the concerned applicant. Trainees must not have any professional connections with third parties, which might be incompatible with their traineeship (i.e. must not work for lobbyists, legal attachés, etc.). They are not permitted to exercise any other gainful or non-gainful employment during the period of the traineeship².

IV. Selection criteria

Applications will be assessed by taking into consideration the educational background, qualifications, competences and motivation. In particular, the following criteria will be assessed when selecting applicants for this traineeship position:

1. University degree in a relevant field.
2. Satisfactory knowledge of English (level B2 according to the Language levels of the Common European Framework of Reference) to fully profit from the traineeship and to be able to follow meetings and perform adequately. Given the nature of the Agency's tasks, its working language regime and the requirements of the service, the knowledge of the English language at a level higher than B2 may be preferred.

V. Selection

After the deadline for applications, the applications are checked towards the eligibility criteria. Eligible applications are assessed by a Selection Committee appointed by the Director.

Suitable candidates may be contacted over the phone or by means of video-conference by the members of the Selection Committee in order to check their availability, to better assess the candidates' suitability and motivation for the position, and to discuss the mutual expectations.

² The Director may admit to the Programme trainees seconded by other organizations or national entities.

The Selection Committee will finally establish a shortlist of candidates to be proposed to the Director. The candidates may be ranked in order of merit or in alphabetical order.

The Director makes the final selection of applicants on the basis of the proposals submitted by the Selection Committee. Regard will also be taken in respect of the maintenance of an appropriate gender balance and geographical distribution of the trainees. The Director reserves the right to proceed with a further assessment or phone interviews before taking a decision on the successful trainee.

The selection proceedings of trainees are confidential. The successful applicant is informed about the outcome of the selection procedure.

The Director may also establish a shortlist of suitable candidates for this profile. In the interest of the Service, candidates included in the shortlist may be offered a traineeship in other similar areas and/or similar duties.

VI. Equal opportunities

The BEREC Office applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations and accepts and treats applications without distinction on grounds of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

VII. Conditions of Traineeship

The trainee will receive a monthly grant calculated at the beginning of each calendar year and published on the BEREC Office website.³ Training periods are initially offered for a period of six months with the option reserved to the Agency to extend the traineeship only once for a period to be determined.
