The BEREC Office

The BEREC Office was set up to provide administrative and professional support to BEREC, the Body of European Regulators for Electronic Communications. The BEREC Office is located in Riga, Latvia.

The BEREC Office is a Body of the European Union (EU) managed by an Administrative Manager under the supervision of a Management Committee composed of the heads of the 28 EU national regulatory authorities (NRAs) in charge of the monitoring of the telecom markets, as well as a European Commission representative.

The BEREC Office is responsible, in particular, for collecting information from NRAs and exchanging and communicating information in relation to the role and tasks of BEREC, disseminating regulatory best practice among NRAs, assisting the Chair of the BEREC Board of Regulators in the preparation of his/her work, and setting up and providing support to expert working groups.

The Staff Regulations of Officials of European Communities, the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities and the rules adopted jointly by the EU institutions for the purpose of applying these Staff Regulations and Conditions of employment apply to the staff of the Office.
The post

The Security and Logistics Assistant will be in charge of security and logistics matters at the BEREC Office, under the supervision of the Head of Administration and Finance.

The Security and Logistics Assistant will be in charge of the management of the BEREC Office’s assets and their inventory and will be responsible, among others, to:

- Manage all questions linked to security for staff and security of infrastructure;
- Assist in insurance cover and dealing with insurance claims or other insurance-related matters;
- Disseminate information concerning facilities and safety related issues;
- Assist with drafting tender specifications linked to logistics and security of the BEREC Office premises, drawing up plans, site meetings with contractors, calls for tender and check invoices against the conditions of the orders/contracts;
- Provide support in logistics (management of the premises occupied by the Office including furniture, office supplies, telephones);
- Liaise with local companies in charge of building, heating, security and other logistic issues such as organisation of trainings (if requested, committees, events etc.);
- Monitor the functioning of the premises (offices, parking, security area and other spaces) and its equipment;
- Carry out repairs and maintenance works and emergency actions;
- Assist in managing office allocations and office removals;
- Be responsible for inventory, maintaining and updating the inventory of assets and comparing the physical inventory to the data records;
- Check and register of invoices;
- Follow-up and process the requests related to the premises;
- Manage stationery and other supplies for the BEREC Office;
- Ensure correct receipt and dispatch of postal items (including diplomatic pouch);
- Register and/or file incoming and outgoing mail, including invoices, in the respective document management tool(s);
- Have a financial role of data entry and/or initiating agent;
- The Security and Logistics Assistant should be available in case of incidents outside working hours (on-call duty) and may be assigned other duties appropriate to the grade from time to time.

Eligibility criteria

Candidates will be eligible for this selection procedure if they fulfil the following formal criteria at the time of the application deadline:

1. Be a national of a Member State of the European Union and enjoy full rights as a citizen;

1 Before appointment, successful applicants will be asked to provide a certificate issued by a competent authority attesting the absence of any criminal record.
2. Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service;

3. Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post;

4. Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties;

5. Languages: A thorough knowledge of one of the official EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of a second EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties;

6. Professional experience and studies: A post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or a secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education and professional experience of three years.

Selection criteria

The Security and Logistics Assistant will be selected on the basis of the following selection criteria:

- Thorough knowledge of English as a working language;
- Very good knowledge of the IT applications related to the job;
- Knowledge and professional experience in the security and logistics field or other fields related to the described tasks.

The following would be an asset:

1. Previous work experience in procurement;
2. Previous experience within EU Agencies/Institutions;
3. Previous experience in implementing administrative procedures within other EU Agencies/Institutions or international organisations/companies;
4. Knowledge of ABAC Workflow and ABAC Assets;
5. Knowledge of the official language of the host member state of the BEREC Office.

The following skills and competencies relevant to the post may also be tested during the interview:

- Motivation to work in a multicultural working environment;
- Good oral and written communication skills (with attention among other things to accuracy and the logical structure of written communication);

2 Before being hired, a member of contract staff shall be medically examined by one of the institution's medical officers in order to satisfy the institution that he/she fulfils the requirements of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union.

3 Only diplomas and certificates that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are the subject of equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the Member States will be taken into consideration.

4 At the time of the publication of this call, the BEREC Office is located in Latvia.
- Attention to details and protocol, good manners;
- Ability to work well in a team at the appropriate level.

Stages in the selection procedure
The BEREC Office sets up a Selection Committee. This Committee will analyse all applications and identify a number of candidates who have the best profile with regard to the selection criteria mentioned above. These candidates will be invited for an interview with the Selection Committee.

A. Admission to the selection procedure
After the deadline for applications, the applications submitted will be checked against the eligibility criteria. Only eligible applications will be then assessed against the selection criteria.

B. Assessment of eligible applications
The Selection Committee will analyse the motivation letters, together with the application forms and the CVs of eligible applicants with reference to the selection criteria. An overall assessment of the quality and suitability of each eligible application will be performed on the basis of the requirements of the posts.

C. Interview
Upon completion of the assessment of eligible applications, the Selection Committee will invite the most suitable candidates for an interview (duration: 30 minutes, main language of the interview: English). The maximum total number of candidates invited for interview will be 6.

Candidates are kindly invited to indicate in their application any special arrangements that may be required if invited to attend an interview.

The interview will aim to assess the suitability of the candidates to perform their duties, their professional knowledge, their skills and competencies relevant to the post and their motivation. The interview shall cover: an analysis of the language abilities, personal and professional competences of each applicant. The interview will be held in English. Candidates with English as their mother tongue will be tested in another official EU language to double-check that the eligibility criteria is met (i.e. satisfactory knowledge of a second official EU language). Maximum score for the interview: 100. Minimum pass score: 50.

The content of the questions asked during the interviews will be set in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised.

1. Possible job offer and verification of documents and scrutiny
On the basis of the outcome of the interviews, the Selection Committee may propose the Appointing Authority to offer the job to the most suitable candidate.

The successful candidate’s application will be checked against the supporting documents to confirm its accuracy and eligibility.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is discovered that the information given in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.
Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

2. Conditions of employment

The Security and Logistics Assistant will be appointed by the Appointing Authority for a quick replacement as defined in Article 5(3) of the Decision of the Management Committee MC(10)24 as a contract agent in function group II pursuant to Article 3a of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union for a period of six months in order to cover an urgent need related to the security of the premises. Contracts concluded for a quick replacement shall not exceed six months. The contract may only be renewed for another fixed term or for an indefinite duration if the contract agent has passed a selection procedure pursuant to paragraph 1 of article 5 of the Decision of the Management Committee MC(10)24.

Application procedure

For their applications to be valid, candidates must submit:

1. A covering letter outlining their reasons for applying;
2. A curriculum vitae (CV), preferably drafted using the Europass CV format;
3. The application form in the annex.

Applicants are explicitly requested to highlight and give a brief account of their experience and expertise relevant to the job and the start and end dates of employment contracts. Applicants are invited to indicate, apart from the duration of studies, the legal length of the diplomas that they hold. Applications will be rejected if the dossier is incomplete or submitted after the deadline.

Supporting documents (e.g. certified copies of degrees/diplomas, references, proof of experience, etc.) should not be sent at this point but must be submitted at a later stage of the procedure if requested.

Applications, preferably in English, should be sent only by e-mail to:

recruitment@berec.europa.eu

The reference (BEREC/2017/04 Security and Logistics Assistant) must always be indicated in the subject line of e-mails.

Candidates are asked to report any potential change of address in writing without delay to the address above.

5 As defined in Article 5(3) of the Decision of the Management Committee MC(10)24.
A correction coefficient for Latvia is applied to salaries. The correction coefficient at the time of publication of this vacancy is 73%.
7 The Europass CV can be downloaded from the website http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu.
Closing date for applications

Applications must be sent by email. The deadline is 24/07/2017 at 12:00 (midday) Riga time (11:00 a.m. Central European Time). The Agency strongly advises candidates not to wait until the last few days before the deadline to apply, since heavy internet traffic or connection difficulties could lead to problems. It is the sole responsibility of each applicant to submit his/her completed application by the deadline for submission. Any information or documentation provided after the deadline will not be taken into account.

Approximate timetable

The selection process may take several months; information will be released at the end of each stage.

Independence and declaration of interests

The Logistic and Security assistant will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to any interests that may be considered prejudicial to his/her independence. Candidates must confirm their willingness to do so in their application.

Other important information

Candidates are reminded that the work of the Selection Committee and the Management Committee of the BEREC Office is confidential. It is forbidden for applicants to make direct or indirect contact with members of these committees or for anybody else to do so on their behalf. Any infringement of this rule will lead to disqualification from the selection procedure.

Equal opportunities

The BEREC Office applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.

Protection of personal data

The BEREC Office will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Requests for information and appeal procedures

Applicants who would like further information, or consider that they have grounds for a complaint concerning a particular decision, may, at any point in the selection procedure, email a request for further information to recruitment@berec.europa.eu.

A candidate who feels that a mistake has been made regarding eligibility may ask to have his/her application reconsidered by sending a request for review within 20 calendar days of the date of the email notifying the candidate of the outcome, quoting the reference of the selection procedure, to the Chairman of the Selection Committee at the following address:

BEREC Office
Human Resources
Z. A. Meierovica Bulv. 14, 2nd Floor
Riga, LV-1050
LATVIA

The Selection Committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the above address.

The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts from the time the candidate is notified of the act that adversely affects him/her.

Candidates can submit a judicial appeal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities to:

Court of Justice of the European Union
L - 2925 Luxembourg

Details of how to submit an appeal can be found on the website:

http://curia.europa.eu/

It is also possible to complain to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the Staff Regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman’s duties, published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman
1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
France
http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu

Please note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the Court of Justice of the EU under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU.

Please also note that, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman’s duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned. Therefore, before contacting the Ombudsman, candidates must have submitted a complaint/appeal to the BEREC Office and received a negative reply from the BEREC Office.
